FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHATHAM, OHIO – Senior Master Sergeant (“SMSgt”) Jared Bohley will be receiving an all-expenses paid backyard makeover courtesy of Patios For Patriots as the group’s way of saying “thank you” for his 17 years of service to our country. SMSgt Bohley returned home from Qatar this past January after serving in his fourth overseas deployment to the Middle East – he previously had served in Iraq (October 2001 to September 2002), Jordan (2003), and Afghanistan (2010).

SMSgt Bohley is a third-generation soldier, with his maternal and paternal grandfathers having served in the Army Air Corp and the Air Force during World War II, respectively, and his father having served in the Air National Guard.

Patios for Patriots, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) company, was formed solely to honor and thank this country’s brave men and women for their service. Spearheaded by Jason Geiser and Todd Hershberger (Co-Founders), it is an effort focused on designing and constructing concrete patios for residences. The organization consists of volunteers and contractors who donate their time and energy to perform the work. Funds donated by the public are used toward the projects. This is the 15th project the organization has completed to date.

Why patios, you may ask? “To that we say, ‘Why not?’” agreed Geiser and Hershberger. “Our veterans selflessly give of themselves through serving our country and we think they deserve a special thank you for that service. This is our way of saying thanks by doing what we do best – designing and constructing concrete patios for residential homes.”
