FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wooster, Ohio – Josh Timko, an eight-year veteran of the U.S. Army and current police officer for the City of Wooster, is receiving a backyard renovation courtesy of Patios For Patriots. Timko was selected for the project by the Wayne County, Ohio-based organization after receiving a nomination submitted by Timko's oldest daughter, Faith. Todd Hershberger, Co-Founder of Patios For Patriots notes, "Josh's daughter wrote all of these wonderful things about her dad; all of the community involvement, all of the serving our country as a soldier and now as a police officer – he's her hero. We are honored to have such a great person be our next recipient in the area." Timko is married and has three daughters.

Patios for Patriots, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) company, was formed solely to honor and thank this country's brave men and women for their service. Spearheaded by Jason Geiser and Hershberger (Co-Founders), it is an effort focused on designing and constructing concrete patios for residences. The organization consists of volunteers and contractors who donate their time and energy to perform the work. Funds donated by the public are used toward the projects. This is the 19th project the organization has completed to date.

Why patios, you may ask? "To that we say, 'Why not?'" agreed Geiser and Hershberger. "Our veterans selflessly give of themselves through serving our country and we think they deserve a special thank you for that service. This is our way of saying thanks by doing what we do best – designing and constructing concrete patios for residential homes."
